INSTRUCTIONS

Objective Assessment and Performance Measure Review: Work as a team to rate the Objectives based on the identified strategies, work being done in the state, the state's needs, resources, and data. Rate each Objective on urgency of the work to be done, impact on the issue (reach and resulting impact of change), and how realistic it is that it could result in timely changes. For the performance measure review, refer to the data snapshot and observe the trend so this can be kept in mind as contextual information during the prioritization process. Sum the results of each objective. Report Out: Be ready to share the top scoring 3-5 objectives as well as the lowest scoring 1-2 objectives. Share key insights recorded in the last column. Did anything score as low impact? Was there a lot of disparity in scoring or did everything score evenly?

Important reminder: This is not a prioritization process to determine which priorities and objectives will be addressed and which will not. Everything in the action plan will be addressed over the next five years. The process today, along with other factors will be used to help determine allocation of staff time and resources on where to start and how to focus work, particular the first year. Progress on objectives and resource priorities will be re-evaluated and adjusted accordingly throughout the five-year period.

OBJECTIVE ASSESSMENT RATING SCALES

Urgency:

- (5) Essential = Critical to do right now
- (4) High = Extremely important to do right now
- (3) Medium = It's important, but it doesn't have to be done right now
- (2) Low = It's somewhat important, but not time sensitive

Impact:

- (3) High = Major impact on critical issues and maximum population reach resulting in significant change
- (2) Medium = Moderate impact on issues and moderate impact on the population resulting in notable change
- (1) Low = Some impact on issues, but does not impact the majority of the population resulting in minimal change

Realistic:

- (3) High = It will be pretty easy to see some level of change in the next 12 months
- (2) Medium = It will be tough, but I believe we can see some level of change in the next 12 months
- (1) Low = It's not realistic to think that we can make any change on this in the next 12 months

PERFORMANCE MEASURE REVIEW: Review the rate for National and/or State Performance Measure(s) and note the trend as indicated.
